SPONSORS

Heartfelt Gratitude from Gari Yala Aboriginal Cultural Fundraising Indigenous Corporation

We would like to extend our deepest thanks to all our sponsors whose generous donations have made the Wiradjuri Language and Cultural Camp a reality. Your support is more than financial assistance—it is a commitment to our cultural heritage and a celebration of the rich traditions of the Wiradjuri people.

Your kindness has allowed us to create an environment where language is honored, traditions are shared, and our community grows united by ancestral wisdom and contemporary vision. Every contribution has played a vital role in preserving our language, fostering cultural education, and sparking meaningful dialogue among elders, youth, and community members.

Thank you for standing alongside us on this journey. With your continued support, we can ensure that the spirit of the Wiradjuri culture not only endures but thrives for generations to come.
